

LAMEDH

- ⁸⁹Your word, LORD, is eternal;
it stands firm in the heavens.
- ⁹⁰Your faithfulness continues through all generations;
you established the earth, and it endures.
- ⁹¹Your laws endure to this day,
for all things serve you.
- ⁹²If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.
- ⁹³I will never forget your precepts,
for by them you have preserved my life.
- ⁹⁴Save me, for I am yours;
I have sought out your precepts.
- ⁹⁵The wicked are waiting to destroy me,
but I will ponder your statutes.
- ⁹⁶To all perfection I see a limit,
but your commands are boundless.

ACTIVITIES:

1. What has God already done? How does the psalmist describe God? (Hint: look for implied attributes, too)
2. How does the psalmist describe the Word? How is this important to the psalmist?
3. What had happened (in the past)? How did it turn out and why? What has God done in your past? (vv92-93)
4. What is happening (in the present)? (vv94-95) What does he resolve in the "storm"? What does "ponder" mean?
5. The last verse forms a kind of proverb about life. What two things are being compared? How can you say this in your own words? (Hint: First define each term and use fresh terms to make a paraphrase that is personal to you.)
